MESSAGE FROM SCOUT EXECUTIVE

Scouting is committed to providing the safest possible activities for youth and adult leaders and BSA continually reviews incident reports from around the country to identify areas for improvement. Outdoor adventures provide a thrill to all Scouts, and it's where we play our game with a purpose. But safety is our license to operate, and all leaders must ensure we're following all current BSA guidelines and requirements to ensure the safest possible activities.

As part of BSA's ongoing commitment to abuse prevention, BSA is updating the adult supervision requirements for overnight activities. This update enhances the minimum "two deep leadership" requirements by additionally requiring every adult present on overnight activities to be a registered member of BSA. These adults must submit an adult application, undergo a criminal background check, a volunteer screening database check, and must complete Youth Protection Training.

A limited exception for parents and legal guardians of Cub Scout youth attending overnight with their children is planned due to the family centric nature of Cub Scouting. All Cub Scout Packs, Scouts BSA Troops, Venturing Crews, Sea Scouting Ships, Exploring Posts, council, and district overnight programs will be required to comply with this update by September 1, 2023. We encourage early adoption prior to the effective date.

2023 Report to the State

March 14, 2023 Arizona State Capitol

The Grand Canyon Council BSA, an independent non-profit organization chartered by the Boy Scouts of America in Arizona, has a long and rich history of providing young people with opportunities to develop leadership skills, explore the outdoors, learn new skills, and serve their communities.

A Report to the State is an opportunity to communicate to state officials the service and the benefits that Scouting provides to Arizona. Presented annually to the state legislature or the governor, the report is an ideal time to tell the Scouting story - to reintroduce to elected officials all that Scouting has to offer.

On March 14, 2023, Scouts from the Grand Canyon Council BSA visited the Arizona State Capitol to deliver the Report to the State. The contingent was made up of Jack McLellan, Wipala Wiki Lodge Chief; Joshua Balch, Crew 2616; Melanie Lin, Troop 3280; Christopher Boadu Troop 513; Soren Lindquist, Troop 818; Audra Lindquist, Pack 116; Sergio Joel Rivera-Orbegoso, Troop 172; Wiltz Bethancourt V, Troop 194; Morgan Willis, Troop 3030; and Samuel MacDonald, Troop 818. Each Scout reported specific examples of how scouting has helped them develop important life skills, such as communication, problem-solving, and leadership.

The Dave Alexander Leadership Plaza

Planned improvements to the Heard Scout Pueblo over the next several years will transform it into a premier facility – “Adventure Base Phoenix” – offering Scouting programs and activities for Scouts and the community-at-large. It will include the headquarters of Grand Canyon Scouting, a Scout Shop, training facilities, and activity centers. The Heard Scout Pueblo will become the center of Scouting in Phoenix.

To help construct the leadership plaza and fund our master planning process, we hope you will join Dave and his vision by purchasing a commemorative brick, paver, or boulder in honor of a friend, family, fellow Scout or Scouter, etc., to be added to the completed project. All funds generated will be used to install the leadership plaza and help fund the master plan for Heard Scout Pueblo.

Thank you for all you do for scouting!

Mentoring Relationships – Fostering Acceptance

Everyone, no matter their race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, or life experiences comes into every interaction wearing the lens of their own world view. Often, that world view has been shaped by their experiences and the stories that have been passed down from generation to generation – this is their social identity.

Social identity is grounded in cultural heritage, values, biases, abilities, and how collectively this affects thoughts and actions. Acceptance of others starts with knowing oneself to foster the confidence necessary to engage in conversations to learn about who others are, what their values are, what their cultural stories are, and how they perceive their social identities to empower mutual understanding.

Scouting is a place to promote an atmosphere where every youth, volunteer, and employee feels a sense of belonging, is respected, and is valued. Knowing people as individuals is critical to their feeling welcomed and feeling a sense of belonging in Scouting. And, feeling welcomed and a sense of belonging is a critical driver of unit satisfaction for youth, parents, and leaders.

Sometimes leaders say, “I don’t see differences in the youth, they are all Scouts.” While this is well-meaning, focusing on only a single aspect of a youth’s identity while ignoring things like their culture, religion, ability, or any other differences between Scouts, is like saying to that young person “I don’t see you for who you are” – which they may infer to mean “There is a part of you that I am uncomfortable acknowledging and/or don’t care enough to learn about.”

Scouting is about acknowledging and building the whole child and letting all youth know they are accepted and respected in Scouting for who they are - that adult leaders see them, care about them, and want to know them as they guide them on their Scouting journey. When mentors/leaders are not attuned to cultural, religious, ability, or social differences with their Scouts and Scouting families, these relationships are likely to end as the youth and their family feel they do not fit in or are not accepted or welcome in the Scouting unit.

Mentors/leaders who foster a culture of acceptance continuously reflect on their own social identity and make efforts to learn about their mentee’s and the mentee’s family’s social identity, experiences, and background, as well as things happening in the community and in the world that affect social identity.

Sometimes this can be uncomfortable. As you learn about a youth’s social identity, issues of privilege or oppression based on race, gender, religion, or sexual orientation may surface. While these life experiences may have happened outside of the context of Scouting, the mentor/ leader who is actively building a culture of acceptance in their unit will better recognize when life experiences that induce trauma, such as bullying or social isolation, are affecting youth so that conversations of resilience, compassion, and/or action can be taken depending on the situation.

Below are some questions about social identity for Self-Reflection:

- What are my social identities (e.g., race/ethnicity, gender, religion, class, etc.)?
- What social identities are most important to me?
- How does my social identity shape my world view and experiences?
- Where in my life have I experienced privilege and/or oppression, and how has this shaped my identity?
- How do my social identities help or hinder my relationships?

- What are my assumptions about how others might perceive my social identity?
- What are my assumptions about Scouts in my unit and their life experiences?
- What are my assumptions about what identities are most meaningful to me?
- How do I make space in working with Scouts to allow them to express their own identity?
- How do I learn about myself through listening and getting to know these Scouts and their families?

Fostering a culture of acceptance is a journey that involves continuous strides in learning. Sometimes mentors avoid conversations about social identity because they are afraid they will make a mistake that is offensive. But remember – A Scout is Brave. It is worse to not try at all or to be “identity blind” than it is to try and, in the process, make a mistake. Start with your own self-reflection, listen, and get to know the Scouts you are working with. And, when you do make a mistake, acknowledge it, and take accountability and discuss it with your mentee. Acknowledging mistakes in front of your mentee is good role modeling and shows your mentee that you care about them, are open to learning, and are committed to continuous improvement. It also builds trust and respect and shows them how to build resilience skills.

Guide to Safe Scouting Update 2023

A Must Know for Cub Scout Leaders – Guide to Safe Scouting Update 2023

All participants in official Scouting activities should become familiar with the Guide to Safe Scouting. The Guide to Safe Scouting is an overview of Scouting policies and procedures gleaned from a variety of sources. Please refer to the online version for the most updated information. The 2023 Guide to Safe Scouting Updates include:

- Updated Scouting's Barriers to Abuse
- Updated Cub Scout Coordinated Camping Section
- Additional examples of prohibited activities, no policy change.

Additional Guidelines Specifically for Cub Scout Unit-Coordinated Camping

- Cub Scout camping is limited to their council's designated locations with appropriate facilities.
  - Councils use Pack Overnight Campout Site Appraisal Form (www.scouting.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/430-90218-PackOvernightForm\_Fillable.pdf) to review and designate locations.
  - Units can request from their council a site appraisal but cannot do their own appraisal.
- Cub Scout pack unit coordinated camping is limited to single overnight experiences.
- Cub Scout camping is a family-centric program.
- Cub Scout youth may tent with a parent or guardian as outlined in Scouting's Barriers to Abuse.
- Cub Scout youth should attend the camping event with their parent(s)/ guardian(s).
  - Lions and Tigers must have their adult partner present to take part.
  - For all other ranks: only in exceptional circumstances, a Cub Scout whose parent or legal guardian cannot attend a unit overnight camping trip may participate under the supervision of another registered adult member of the BSA, a parent of a Cub Scout who is also attending. The unit leader and a parent or legal guardian must agree to the arrangement, and all Youth Protection policies apply. At no time may another adult accept responsibility for more than one additional "non family member" youth.
  - Webelos and Arrow of Light Den Camping: Each Scout should attend with their parent(s) or guardian(s). A Webelos or Arrow of Light Scout whose parent or legal guardian cannot attend a den overnight camping trip may participate under the supervision of at least two registered leaders. The leaders and a parent or legal guardian must agree to the arrangement, and all Youth Protection policies apply.
- Only Webelos and Arrow of Light dens may conduct den coordinated campouts. Den camping only includes the Webelos or Arrow of Light youth. As with pack coordinated campouts, the den must have a BALOO trained adult leader in attendance and all Youth Protection policies apply.
  - Webelos/Arrow of Light Den Camping may participate and camp at a Scouts BSA troop unit campout. All Cub Scout camping requirements still apply, including the den must have a BALOO trained adult leader in attendance and all Youth Protection policies apply.
- Webelos/Arrow of Light Dens may only participate at a Scouts BSA "camporee" as day visitors.

Pack 324 Crossing Over Ceremony

On Wednesday, March 22nd, Family Pack 324 of Central Phoenix held our Crossing Over Ceremony outdoors at Royal Palm Park. It was a beautiful evening for such a special event.

As Cubmaster for our Pack for the past five years, it was a terrific pleasure and great honor to witness the growth of the scouts we celebrated at our crossing over, and to help them transition into their next adventures in scouting and beyond.

I can attest that Pack 324's AOLs had been very well prepared for their new adventures, have lived the scout law and oath, and learned much during their time with Pack 324 – thanks to their fantastic leaders and akelas.

Their Den Leaders Mr. Mike (7 years in his role) and Ms. Rachel (4 years in her role) led their scouts through a super solid and fun program. Throughout the years they welcomed new scouts at various ranks and helped everyone fit right in without skipping a beat. It would be harder to find two leaders who worked so well together and had their boy and girl dens work seamlessly as one. They will be deeply missed by the Pack as they move on with their Scouts to the Troop level.

Our Pack is very proud of all our AOLs and happy to announce their selections:

Cruz A. – Troop tbd
 Elias B. – Troop 41
 Story C. – Troop 3329
 Liam C. – Troop 41
 Atticus H-J – Troop 329
 Clara L. – Troop 3329
 Liam M. – Troop 329
 Charlotte R. – On to new adventures
 Violet S. – Troop 3329

Congratulations to all.

A special thank you to Roy Hollis for bringing his much beloved crossing over bridge. Pack 324 has used his bridge for the past 5 years. Also, thank you to Scoutmaster Brian Cook and Assistant Scoutmaster Jose Amorin of Troop 41, Scoutmaster Wes Fuller and Committee Chair Stuart Snedecor of Troop 329, Scoutmaster Lindsay Kittler of Troop 3329, and Unit Commissioner Judy Walden for attending the crossover and making it extra special.

Thank you, fellow scouters of the Grand Canyon Council for your interest in Pack 324's latest and greatest.

Yours in Scouting, Cubmaster Jessica, Pack 324 – A Family Pack, We welcome girls and boys

Central District Welcomes Five New Eagle Scouts

Central district welcomes five new Eagle Scouts in March with a grand total of 898.6 hours of service to our community!

We wish to CONGRATULATE each one of our Eagle Scouts and recognize their Projects: Connor B. (T201) Built Bat Boxes for installation at Papago Park, Tovrea Castle and the Phoenix Zoo; Felix S. (T127) Trailhead Restoration on Piestewa Peak; Soren K. (T41) Built a Goat Shelter at Liberty Wildlife; Jake L. (T441) Created an Outdoor Learning Center for Loma Linda School; and Jack W. (T41) Built Raised Garden Beds and Watering Systems for Phoenix Christian School.

Thank you once again to our district and volunteer board reviewers, parents, and adult Scouters who enthusiastically support and celebrate these young men! Thank you Jim Petersen (Scoutmaster T148) for hosting our March Eagle Boards at St. Simon & Jude Cathedral.

Congratulations, Eagle Scouts, for your hard work and incredible community service.

Philmont Crew's First Shakedown Hike

The Troop 41/Venture Crew 2041 Philmont Crew's first shakedown hike was a success! We hiked almost 14 miles in the Superstitions over two days, with a fair amount of elevation shifts along the way. The condition of the trail could've been a bit better, but it only helped us improve.

We also had the opportunity to test out our camping gear and practice setting up our tents and cooking meals in the backcountry. We also learned where we needed to improve, for instance bringing more water and getting lighter gear.

Overall, the hike ended up being a big success, giving us a head start on our Philmont training. We feel even more ready for the next hike and are on our way to Philmont preparedness!

A day of Cub Scout Adventure and High Speed Racing

Gila River District held its 2023 Cub Scout Activity Day on March 25, 2023. Serving as both a Scouting event and district recruitment activity over 60 Scouts, Siblings and prospective Scouts came out to enjoy a day filled with a range of Pinewood racing excitement and fun Scout activities!

Scouts enjoyed panning for gold, building a boat out of recycled materials to race down a regatta track, creating a painting with string, the STEM of pinewood racing, mixing up glow in the dark slime, constructing Lego derby cars, hammering out leather crafts, building a kite, demonstrations of metal forging, meeting Arizona DPS officers, checking out police vehicles, and of course the most thrilling action of all was the running of the 2023 Gila River District Pinewood Derby with our champions:

1st Place – Grayson Anderson, Webelos from Pack 178
 2nd Place – Danny Baum, Webelos from Pack 178
 3rd Place – Cameron Mueller, Wolf from Pack 178

With special mention for car designs going to Harris Nolle from Pack 472 taking Best in Show and Coner Nelson from Pack 472 with the car showing the Most Cub Scout Pride.

In addition to all the fun for Scouts the activity day included a gear exchange where new and used camping gear, Scouting equipment and uniforms were able to find a new homes and a longer life out serving Scouts in Arizona.

Gila River District would like to thank Mountain View Lutheran Church in Ahwatukee for providing their facilities to use for the activity day and Arizona DPS for sending officers and vehicles to the event. In addition the support Troop 17, Troop 48, Ship 3519 and the many Scouts, Scout leaders and volunteers from around the community who contributed their time and talents to helping make this an amazing and successful day for the Scouts in Gila River District.

The Cub Scout Activity Day was an amazing adventure and great fun for everyone who participated, we look forward to seeing more Scouts next year!

Backpacking Second Water Trail

Troop 828 Explores Second Water Trail - Troop 828 took the opportunity to take on a different trail for a backpack expedition. With the troop about to experience a population explosion with Webelos cross overs, the existing veterans wanted an older youth challenge. They got a few surprises while overnighiting at Second Water trail in the Superstition Mountains.

The trail is rated as one of the easier with just a couple of decent size elevation gains. Early week morning temperatures in the 30's deterred some of the scouts. Water access was in question when this was put on the calendar. The recent rains relieved some of that worry. A call to the forest services confirmed the spring was running. That helped with the amount of water needing to be carried.

The challenges began with the long downhill to the intersection of Boulder Trail. The thoughts of we have to go back up that were first in mind. Next was seeing people occupying the campsite we had planned upon. Having everything we needed on our backs, we pressed on a southern direction only to find Troop 132 in the next available spot.

Now having backpacked a little longer than expected, we did the 180 and tried the other side of Second Water. We were rewarded with a central spot with an existing fire ring. There were enough small spots to stick a tent or two. Home for the night was established.

Expecting a cold night, everyone bundled up. The night was not as cold and a search crew wanted us to be aware. We were awoken around midnight to what we hope was a helicopter doing a search in our area. Either that or a UFO was looking for people, cows, and chickens to abduct. A couple of passes were done over our general area. Some of us got out of our tents to see the flyovers. Next morning after a hearty breakfast in our bellies and stories of what was seen during the night having been shared, we were able to take on the uphill challenge that awaited us.
